

Allied PhotoChemical renews ISO 9001:2008 Certification.

Allied PhotoChemical continues to build upon a decade of ISO Certification.

MARYSVILLE, MI – January, 2011 – Allied PhotoChemical recently received full ISO 9001:2008 recertification, based on a thorough external audit by American Systems Registrar, LLC, conducted on Thursday, December 9, 2010.

“Allied PhotoChemical has continued to invest internally in our quality systems, working with a Quality Consultant internally to continually improve and expand our Quality System” said Michael Kelly – CEO / President. “And the benefits have been excellent, based off our customers feedback.”

“During the past several years, many of our competitors have let their ISO process degrade and actually have lost their certification,” said Dan Sweetwood – Vice President of Operations. “Allied PhotoChemical views ISO Certification as a requirement to meet our customers strict performance requirements and to continuously improve our support and service to their valuable operations.”

ASR Certificate Number: 3492
